On Thursday, December 19, 2002, a 30-year-old Hispanic female reported to San Antonio Police that she had been sexually assaulted. The victim told officers that she and her husband were traveling in their vehicle and were stopped by a uniformed police officer in a marked police car. The couple had been arguing and the officer instructed the victim that he could not allow the couple to stay together. The officer then told the victim he would take her to a friends home. Instead, the victim reports she was taken into a dark field and sexually assaulted. After the assault, the victim was able to flee on foot and ran to her home, where she told her husband what had occurred. SAPD was called the following day and given the facts of the offense. At that time, an investigation was started.

While Detectives with the SAPD Sex Crimes Unit conducted the investigation, information was obtained which led to an arrest warrant being issued for a Balcones Heights Police Officer. Deputy Chief Rosemary Flammia will be present to address questions from the media in regards to the investigation and subsequent arrest of the offender. The identity of the Balcones Heights Officer is listed below.
